THE OFFICIAL ARIA CHARTS

since 1983

Updated each Saturday at 5pm on ARIACHARTS.COM.AU

Albums:

Top 5:

1. Ariana Grande 'Thank U, Next'
2. Queen 'Bohemian Rhapsody (The Original Soundtrack)'
3. Queen 'Greatest Hits'
4. Lady Gaga & Bradley Cooper 'A Star Is Born'
5. Hilltop Hoods 'The Great Expanse'

Albums Chartifacts:

#1: Ariana Grande 'Thank U, Next' – It's week five at #1 on the ARIA Albums Chart for Ariana Grande's fifth album, Thank U, Next. This week saw Grande begin her world tour in support of the album and previous release, Sweetener (#1 Aug. '18).

#7: Luke Combs 'This One's For You' – Luke Combs takes out a new peak on this week's Albums Chart with This One's For You. The American country singer-songwriter's first album debuted at #16 in March 2018. Its jump of 12 spots in its 41st week in the Top 50 comes on the back of Combs' Australian tour.

#8: The Eagles 'Selected Works 1972-1999' – Following their Australian tour, legendary American rock band The Eagles return to the chart at #8 with the career-spanning set Selected Works 1972-1999. First charting in 2014, the album previously peaked at #11 on two separate occasions.

#14: Florida Georgia Line 'Can't Say I Ain't Country' – American country duo Florida Georgia Line move back up the chart 15 spots to #14 with their fourth album, Can't Say I Ain't Country. It comes after they played a number of shows around Australia in the last week.

#23: Jack Savoretti 'Singing To Strangers' (Debut) – English singer-songwriter Jack Savoretti takes out a new charts peak with Singing To Strangers. The follow-up to 2016's Sleep No More is Savoretti's first appearance in the Top 50 since Written In Scars (#47 Mar. '16). Singing To Strangers features a live recording of Savoretti and Kylie Minogue performing the track they co-wrote – 'Music's Too Sad Without You' – which originally appeared on Kylie's #1 album Golden.

ABOUT THE ARIA CHART: The ARIA Charts are the official record of the hottest singles and albums in Australia. The ARIA charts are based on data collected from a combination of physical and digital retailers, and music-streaming services. We are the only aggregator representative of the wide spectrum of music consumption in Australia and a trusted weekly barometer of what's popular in music right now. For over 30 years, the Australian music-loving public has turned to the ARIA Charts every week to find out what music fans across the country are listening to and loving. We've seen Australian artists dethrone international superstars from the number one spot, unknowns emerge to become worldwide hit makers, and records set that may never be broken. The weekly ARIA Charts are released on Apple Music and Spotify each week on Saturdays at 5pm AEST time.
