Omi and Taylor Swift hold together at Number One for a second week, on this week’s ARIA Charts

Singles:

Top 5:

1. Omi ‘Cheerleader (Felix Jaehn Remix)’
3. Hozier ‘Take Me To Church’
4. James Bay ‘Hold Back The River’
5. Sia ‘Elastic Heart’

Singles Chartifacts:

#1: Omi ‘Cheerleader (Felix Jaehn Remix)’ – Week two at the top of the ARIA Singles Chart for Jamaican reggae/soul/urban pop artist Omi and the Felix Jaehn Remix of his song ‘Cheerleader’.

#6: Chet Faker ‘Talk Is Cheap’ – The #1 song in this year’s Triple J Hottest 100 becomes this week’s highest re-entry and picks up a new peak following Monday’s countdown. ‘Talk Is Cheap’ previously peaked at #31 in December following Chet Faker’s performance of the track at the 2014 ARIA Awards.

#8: Ellie Goulding ‘Love Me Like You Do’ (debut) – British singer-songwriter Ellie Goulding grabs her second top ten as a lead artist on the ARIA Singles Chart with ‘Love Me Like You Do’. The track comes from the soundtrack to the forthcoming film adaptation of novel Fifty Shades Of Grey. Goulding previously hit the top ten with ‘Burn’ (#6 Aug. ‘13). More recently, she peaked at #7 as guest vocalist on the Calvin Harris track ‘Outside’.

#9: Avicii ‘The Nights’ – A move of 14 for ‘The Nights’ gives Swedish DJ/producer Avicii his sixth top ten on the ARIA Singles Chart. To date, it has peaked one position higher than Avicii’s previous single, ‘The Days’ (#10 Oct. ‘14).

Albums:

Top 5:

1. Taylor Swift ‘1989’
2. Chet Faker ‘Built On Glass’
3. Ed Sheeran ‘X’
4. Meghan Trainor ‘Title’
5. Mark Ronson ‘Uptown Special’

Albums Chartifacts:

#1: Taylor Swift ‘1989’ – She may have been disqualified from the Triple J Hottest 100 but that hasn’t stopped Taylor Swift from notching up week eight at #1 on the ARIA Albums Chart with ‘1989’.

#2: Chet Faker ‘Built On Glass’ – As well as a resurgence on the Singles Chart following the Hottest 100 success of ‘Talk Is Cheap’ (#6 this week), Chet Faker’s debut album has jumped back up the chart to sit in the top ten for an eleventh week. The album’s first two weeks on the chart were spent at #1, back in April 2014.

#6: Marilyn Manson ‘The Pale Emperor’ (debut) – The ninth album from American shock-rockers Marilyn Manson. It’s the band’s follow-up to ‘Born Villain’ (#16 May ’12) and gives them their first top ten appearance since ‘Eat Me, Drink Me’ (#9 Jun. ’07). Marilyn Manson will shortly be touring Australia as part of the Soundwave festival.

#15: Pond ‘Man It Feels Like Space Again’ (debut) – Album six from Pond. It’s the Perth band’s highest-charting album to date and their second to hit the top 50, following ‘Hobo Rocket’ (#37 Aug. ’13). They’re currently touring as part of the Laneway festival.
