

Post Malone holds at the top, and Shania Twain delivers her first ARIA Number One album in nearly 15 years with 'Now', on this week's ARIA Charts

Singles:

Top 5:

1. Post Malone Feat. 21 Savage 'Rockstar'
2. Macklemore feat. Skylar Grey 'Glorious'
3. Dua Lipa 'New Rules'
4. Macklemore & Ryan Lewis Feat. Mary Lambert 'Same Love'
5. Sam Smith 'Too Good At Goodbyes'

Singles Chartifacts:

#1: Post Malone Feat. 21 Savage 'Rockstar' – 'Rockstar' by American rapper Post Malone holds #1 on the ARIA Singles Chart for a second straight week. To date, the track has peaked at #2 in both the US and UK.

#4: Macklemore & Ryan Lewis Feat. Mary Lambert 'Same Love' – Macklemore & Ryan Lewis' former #1 returns to the top 50 for the first time since May 2013 on the back of Macklemore's performance at the NRL Grand Final. During the song's original run in the chart, it spent four consecutive weeks at #1 during January/February 2013. This week is its tenth week in the top ten and 21st week in the top 50. Macklemore's first charting solo single 'Glorious' has moved back up one spot to #2 and current single 'Good Old Days' has moved up nine to #16.

#8: Camila Cabello Feat. Young Thug 'Havana' – Moving up eight spots this week, 'Havana' hits #8 and becomes Camila Cabello's first solo top ten entry. As a member of Fifth Harmony, Cabello scored top ten hits with 'Worth It' (#9 Aug. '15) and 'Work From Home' (#3 Apr. '16).

#9: Khalid 'Young Dumb & Broke' – In its seventh week in the top 50, 'Young Dumb & Broke' climbs up four spots to crack the top ten for the first time. It's Khalid's first top ten single as a lead artist, having peaked at #5 last week as the featured artist on Logic's '1-800-273-8255'.

#11: J Balvin & Willy William Feat. Beyonce 'Mi Gente' – Following eight weeks in the bottom half of the top 50, 'Mi Gente' jumps 22 spots this week to #11. Its jump comes after the release of a remix featuring vocals by Beyoncé, who will donate all proceeds from the song to hurricane relief charities in Mexico, Puerto Rico, and other Caribbean islands.

Albums:

Top 5:

1. Shania Twain 'Now' (debut)
2. Miley Cyrus 'Younger Now' (debut)
3. Ed Sheeran '÷'
4. The Killers 'Wonderful Wonderful'
5. Foo Fighters 'Concrete And Gold'

Albums Chartifacts:

#1: Shania Twain 'Now' (debut) – Returning with her first album of new material in 15 years, Canadian country pop star Shania Twain takes out her third #1 on the ARIA Albums Chart. Twain's fifth album, Now marks the singer-songwriter's return to recording after a period away from music following Greatest Hits (#10 Nov. '04). Twain has previously hit #1 on the Albums Chart with Come On Over (#1 Feb. '99) and Up! (#1 Nov. '02).

#2: Miley Cyrus 'Younger Now' (debut) – The sixth studio album from Miley Cyrus gives the American singer-songwriter a fourth top ten entry on the ARIA Albums Chart. Released two years on from the experimental album Miley Cyrus & Her Dead Petz, Younger Now sees Cyrus turning back towards country pop. It includes the singles 'Malibu' (#3 May '17) and the title track (#49 Aug. '17). Miley Cyrus's other top ten entries have been with Breakout (#1 Sept. '08), Can't Be Tamed (#4 Jul. '10) and Bangerz (#1 Oct. '13).

#7: Rick Price & Jack Jones 'California Dreaming' (debut) – Australian singer-songwriters Rick Price and Jack Jones team up to reimagine 60s and 70s classics on California Dreaming. The album includes covers of tracks made famous by the likes of Eagles, James Taylor, Joni Mitchell, The Doors and more. Price last appeared in the top 50 with the album Tamborine Mountain (#11 Aug. '95), while Jones' last top 50 entry was with the Southern Sons album Nothing But The Truth (#26 May '93).

#8: Demi Lovato 'Tell Me You Love Me' (debut) – Two years on from scoring her first top ten entry on the Albums Chart with Confident (#3 Oct. '15) Demi Lovato claims her second with Tell Me You Love Me. Lovato's sixth album features the single 'Sorry Not Sorry' (#8 Sept. '17), her highest peak to date on the Singles Chart.

#9: Tom Petty & The Heartbreakers 'Greatest Hits' – Following the passing of legendary American singer-songwriter Tom Petty on 2 October, the 1993 compilation Greatest Hits returns to top 50. The album originally peaked at #16 in January 1994, meaning it snares a new peak this week.
